Celebrating 42 Years

Special Guest

CHAD ROBICHAUX

- Pro MMA Champion
- Former Force Recon Marine
- Afghanistan Veteran
- Founder, Mighty Oaks Foundation

Chad Robichaux is a former Force Reconnaissance Marine and Department of Defense contractor with eight deployments to Afghanistan with a Joint Special Operations Command (JSOC) Task Force. Chad also served as a United States federal agent and law enforcement officer where he earned the Medal of Valor. He is an accomplished mixed martial arts champion with an 18-2 professional record, competing in some of the sports' highest-level events.

Chad is the president and founder of Mighty Oaks Foundation. The faith-based military nonprofit is dedicated to helping America's military warriors and their families suffering from the unseen wounds of combat such as Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. Chad has written a bestselling book on the subject and has been featured on such media outlets as Fox News, Forbes, The O'Reilly Factor, USA Today, Christian Post, Focus on the Family, and a short biography film produced by I Am Second. He and his wife, Kathy, have been married 23 years and have three children; their family has personal experience with the challenges of PTSD.

We are thrilled to have Chad with us as we celebrate 42 years of tradition!
